RDM Corporation Announces Windows® 7 Support for its EC Series Scanners

ADK 6.4.1.5 provides customers with a simple upgrade path without service disruptions

WATERLOO, ON, December 7, 2009 – RDM Corporation (TSX: RC), a leading developer of specialized software and hardware products for electronic payment processing, announced today that the EC6000i®, EC7000i® and EC7500i™ series of Digital Imaging check scanners are now certified with the new Windows® 7 operating system.

With the release of RDM's Application Developers Kit version 6.4.1.5, RDM's EC Series check scanners can now be integrated with Windows® 7 without any service disruption.

"Providing solutions that create a positive user experience is critical to our success," said Douglas Newman, President and CEO of RDM. "The timely release of support for Windows® 7 ensures that our customers can easily switch to the latest Microsoft operating system without experiencing any inconvenience."
